

Monthly e - Newsletter March 2026

KRISHI VIGYAN KENDRA, GANJAM-II
BERHAMPUR – 761008
ODISHA UNIVERSITY OF AGRICULTURE AND TECHNOLOGY

Lady Agripreneur Ms. Supriya Kumari Das, felicitated in the QUAT Farmers' Fair-2026 for her extra ordinary achievement in increasing income through IFS.

Ten IAS officers of different states of India visited our campus and received knowledge on Krishi Vigyan Kendra and mode of transfer of agri technologies through KVK.

Extension literatures for farmers of Ganjam district released during 15th scientific advisory committee meeting

SS&H addressing the bankers, buyers, FPO personnels and line department officials in the district level seminar on strengthening of FPOs

Deputy country Director, Ms Nazomi Hashimoto visited CAIC, Hinjilicut and interacted with farmers and farm women of RIISE adopted villages

Interface with stakeholders of RIISE Project, organized in presence of principal investigator, Scientists, block level officers of the RIISE adopted areas and WFP personnels

SS&H being felicitated by chairman, NIST University for providing necessary guidance in establishing agriculture college in their campus

Niranjan Gouda designated as JALA BANDHU by KVK and felicitated by chief scientist, AICRP on IFS, OUAT during the training programme on crop diversification

A Rajeswari Reddy of Hinjiligaon village, Chikiti harvesting a good crop in the Climate field school on marigold cultivation, Var Arka Abhi

Sidhabhairabi SHG, Organised by tribal ladies of Digapahandi block, getting additional income and nutrition by rearing improved colour birds

Tomato variety Arka samrat introduced under mulching and trellis, getting an average yield of 14.2 kg per plant in Hinjilicut block

Improved toria variety Sushree, Introduced in Biribadia village, Digapahandi block under RIISE project in rice fallow areas

Marigold var Ceracole in mulching for increasing income of marginal farm
families,
popularized
under RIISE project in tribal dominated village

Sprinkler
irrigation unit established in vegetable and flower crops in crop cafeteria of KVK

Published by : KVK, Ganjam-II, Berhampur

Chief Editor : Dr. Sujit Kumar Nath, Sr. Scientist & Head

Composer : Mr. Bhakti Ranjan Palai, Prog. Asst. (Comp.)